

JOAN CARDONA DE SOUSA

(FIRST PRIZE)

I've never known about happiness
I didn't know dreams came true
I couldn't believe in you
Until I finally met you

If I could have all the time in the world
I know what I would do
I'd spend it, just being with you.

When all goes wrong
I think in you
In the middle of the chaos
You make my heart beat
You're my peace, my happiness
MY EVERYTHING

I loved you then
And I still love you
And I always will.

COULD YOU STAY WITH ME?
